

Did you know?

ABOUT 20%

OF THOSE BURIED IN THE NASHVILLE CITY CEMETERY
DIED DURING THE AMERICAN CIVIL WAR ERA.

Nashville was a significant location during the war, with emphatic support for both the Union and the Confederacy among Tennessee residents.

come visit the Nashville City Cemetery to experience

A TENNESSEE STATE ARCHIVE

- RIGHT AROUND THE CORNER FROM THE REMNANTS OF FORT NEGLEY, THE LARGEST INLAND FORT BUILT DURING THE WAR
- GRAVES OF SOLDIERS FROM THE BATTLES OF SHILOH, HOOVER'S GAP, AND MORE
- THE FINAL RESTING PLACE OF PRESIDENT JAMES K. POLK AND OTHER NOTABLE FIGURES
- AND SO MUCH MORE INCREDIBLE STATE HISTORY

